

Pinpoint Scotland publish four of their own titles:
ENT & Audiology News [circulation 17,000]
Eye News [circulation 4800]
The PMFA Journal [circulation 10,200]
Urology News [circulation 4000]

Each magazine has its own website:
entandaudiologynews.com
eyenews.uk.com
thepmfajournal.com
urologynews.uk.com

All magazines are published bi-monthly and are mailed out through a controlled circulation to the UK & overseas

The company has three editorial co-ordinators who process the articles sent to us.

The magazines' editors are medical consultants within their chosen specialty and editorial supplied is generally written by specialist doctors or medical writers.

Each editor is supplied with our Editorial Board Guidelines and specific guidelines are sent to every contributing author. Additionally all contributors are asked to sign a declaration of interests.

Editorial meetings are generally held once a year and in some cases more than one.

Training

Staff training is generally carried out in-house. Should individuals require additional support then the company would source external expertise

Complaint handling

The responsible person for the company is Justin Chater
Complaints can be directed to the Managing Director, who will seek to resolve the matter directly with the complainant.

Pinpoint Scotland has not yet sought pre-publication guidance from IPSO. However, it would do so if it needed advice on interpreting the Editors' Code of Practice or the public interest exception.
