Editorial Standards

I Am New Generation Magazine is committed to upholding the highest editorial standards. It relies upon The Editor's Code of Practice to set its standards. I Am New Generation Magazine has its own internal Editorial Writing Guidelines, which has been provided, together with the IPSO Editor's Code 2019, to its freelance staff and journalists, and also regularly provided to the magazine's contributors.

I Am New Generation Magazine, when required, will arrange for internal staff training sessions to inform, discuss and update the editorial team on both IPSO regulatory changes and internal guidelines.

I Am New Generation Magazine has not yet sought guidance from IPSO on how to apply the Editor's Code of Practice. However, it would seek pre-publication guidance if that was necessary for the particular story.

I Am New Generation Magazine takes all appropriate steps to confirm stories it publishes.

I Am New Generation Magazine has a standard complaints procedure, which is published on the website. Members of the public can register an editorial complaint under this procedure by submitting a complaint in writing to the magazine's email address.

I Am New Generation Magazine has not had any complaints considered by IPSO during the relevant period.
